DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 5-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claims 5 and 7, The limitation “multiplying a difference of the brake pressures on the front wheels by a value which is smaller than 1” is indefinite because it is not clear as to what this calculation is for or what purpose it holds. There is no positive step after said calculation.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 5-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Arikawa (US-4872729).

Regarding claims 5 and 7, Arikawa discloses a device for reducing a yawing moment on a front axle of the vehicle; at least one of a device for measuring a slip and a device for measuring a load on a rear axle or on two running wheels of the rear axle of the vehicle arranged on sides opposite one another; and a control device for influencing brake pressure on the front wheels which limits the brake pressure on the front wheels depending on at least one of a measured slip and of a measured load on the rear axle or on the running wheels of the rear axle, wherein the control device is capable of multiplying a difference of the brake pressures on the front wheels by a value which is smaller than 1 (col 10, lines 50-63).

Any control device is capable of multiplying a sensed value by a number, therefore Arikawa discloses such control.

Regarding claims 6 and 8, any vehicle can be utilized for a purpose and therefor has utility.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Matsumoto, Arikawa, Farr, Panizza, Brearley, Sato, Shirai, Hattwig and Ando were used during examination but were not relied upon for rejection.
